

Do you currently run in-person digital exams?

Yes - for alternative arrangements students

Yes - where professional bodies require it

Yes - with a third party supplier

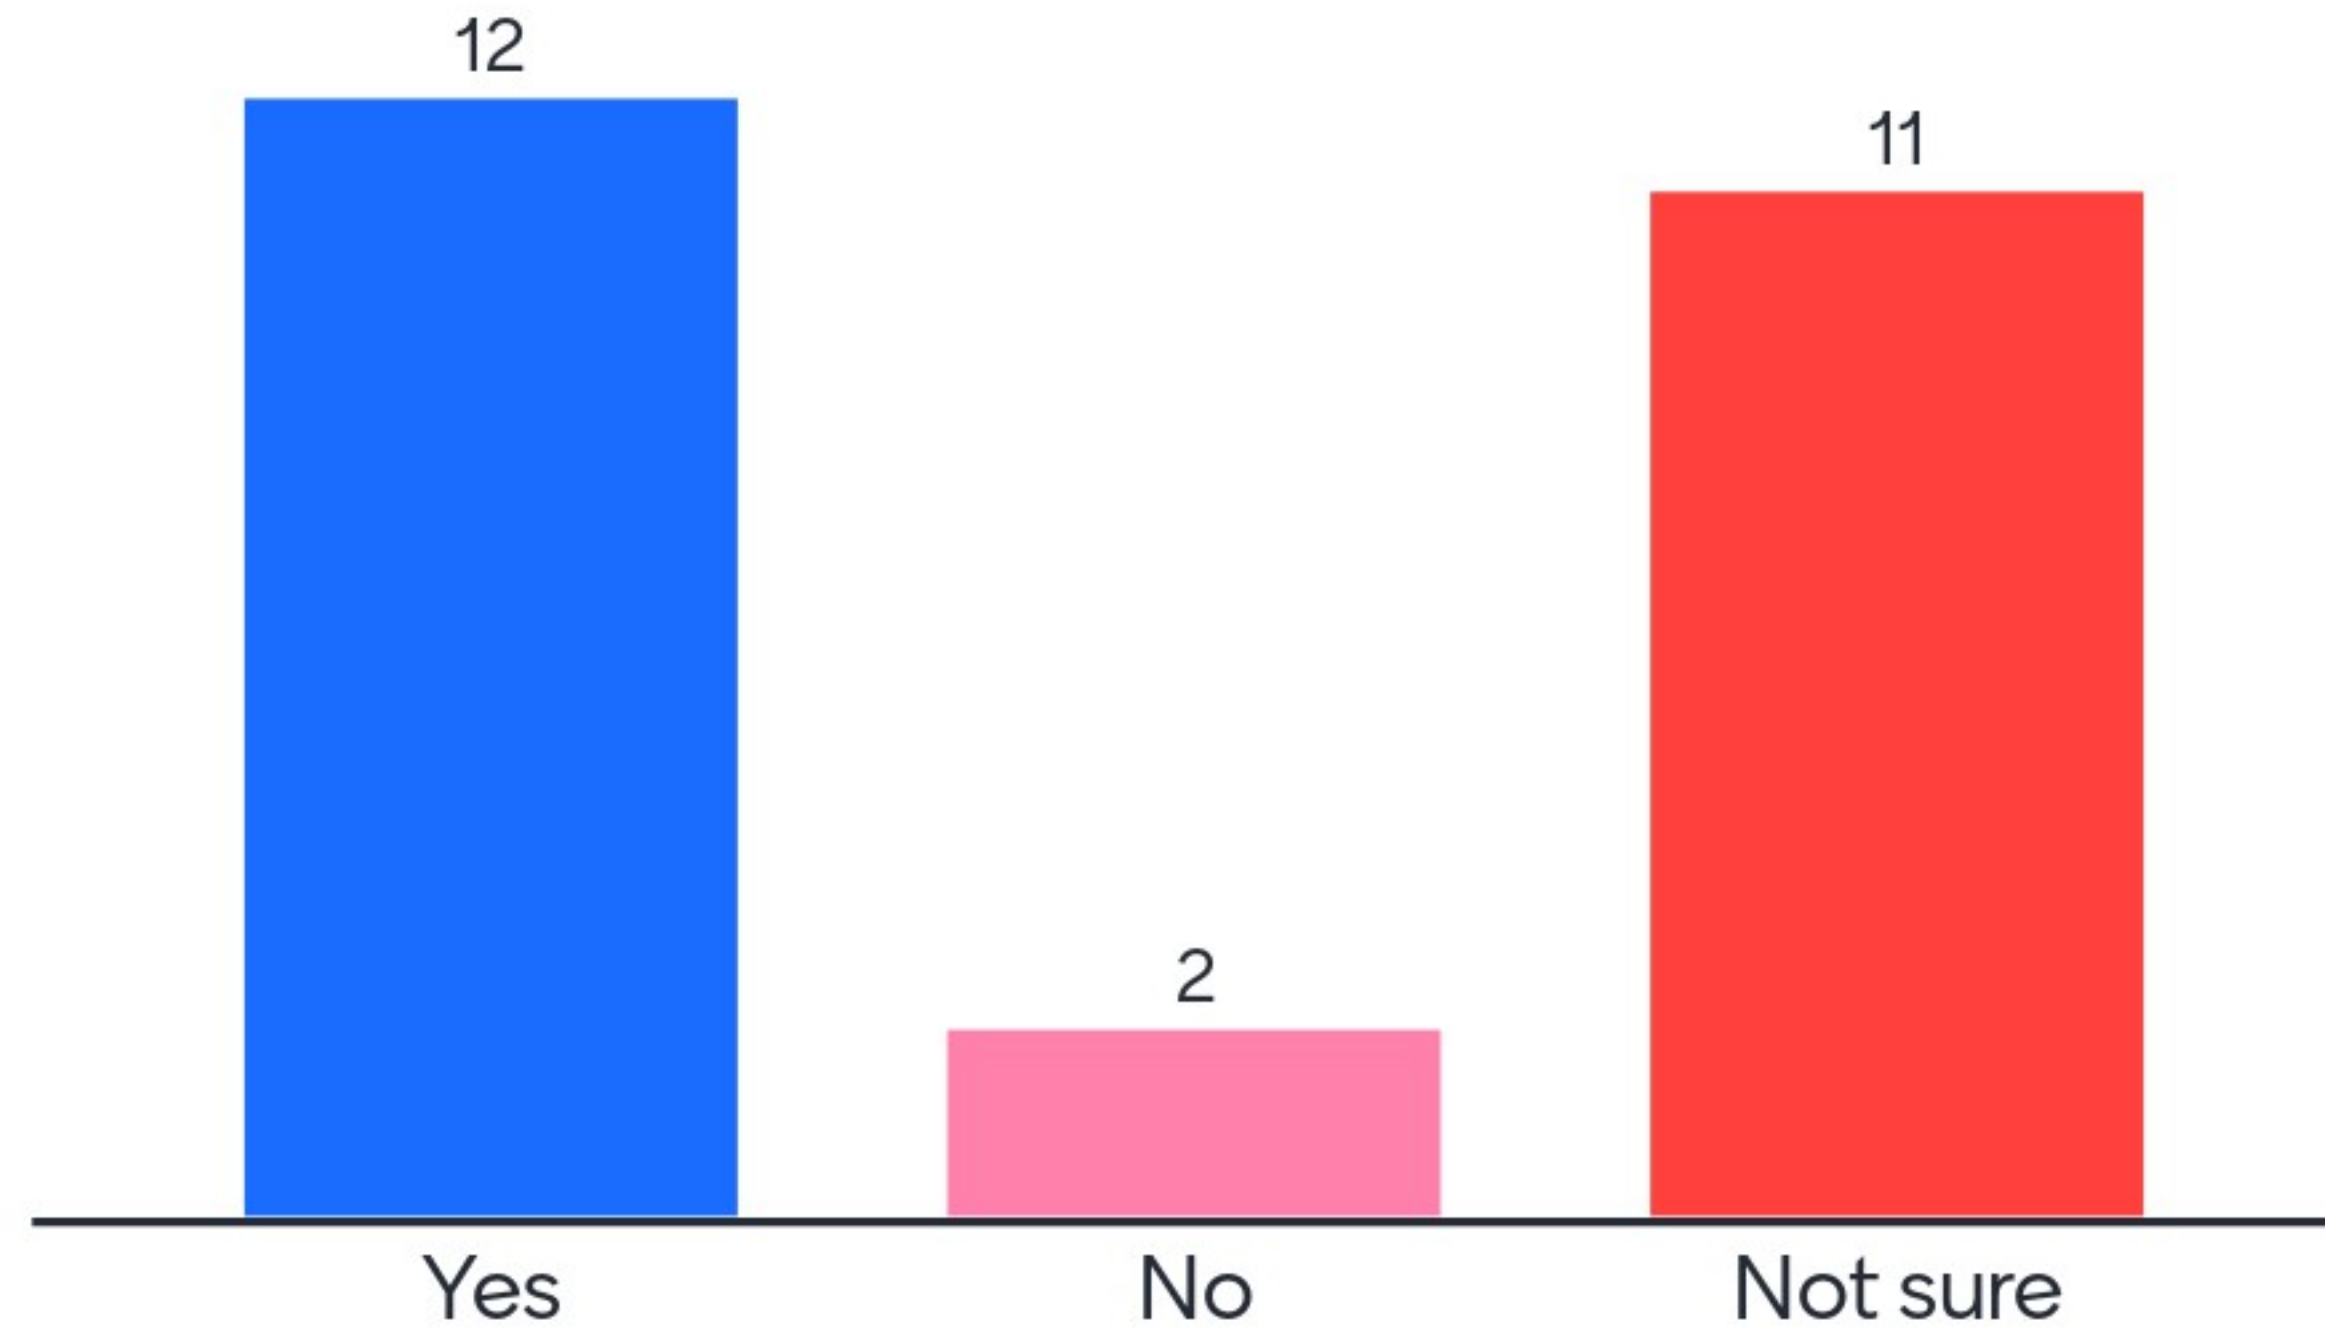

Yes - using campus computer labs

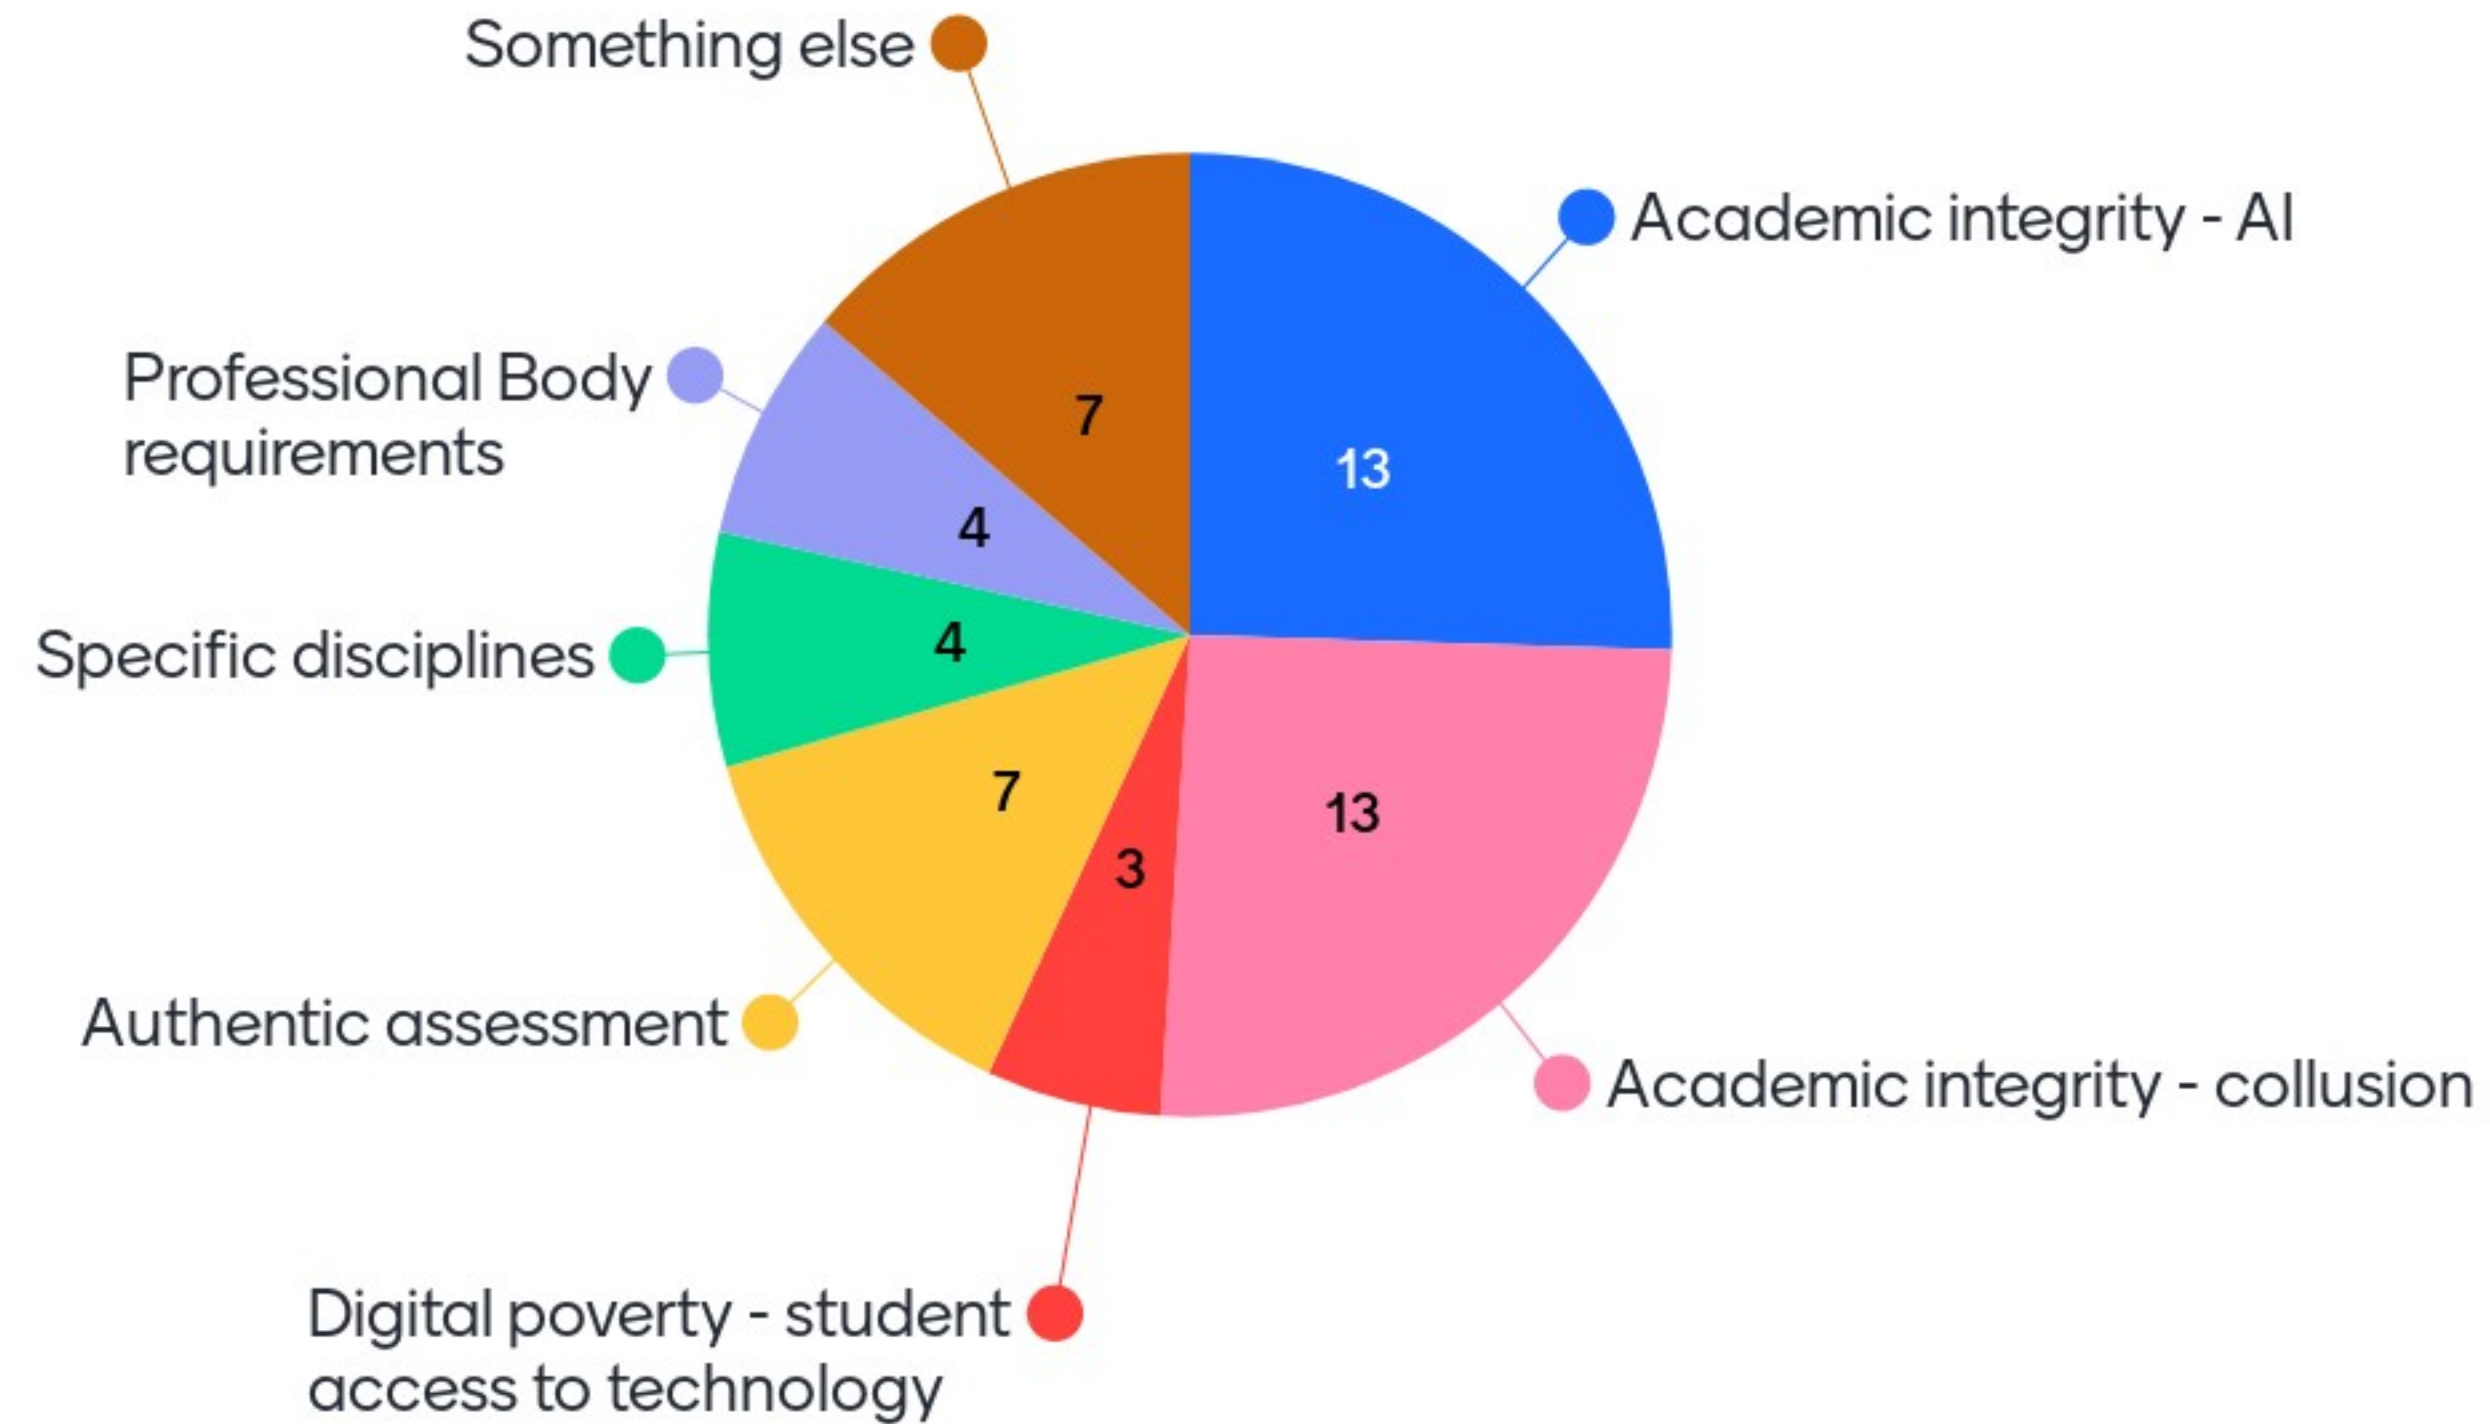

No

Is a desire for more in-person digital exams a hot topic in your institution?

If this is a live issue in your institution, what are the drivers?

Would you be interested in a practice-sharing session about in-person digital exams?

